BERT ADAMS SCOUT CAMP

Ignite (First-Year Camper) Instructor

Reports To: The Ignite (First-Year Camper) Director

Supervises: N/A

Zone: Ignite (First-Year Camper) Skills

Position Summary

The Ignite (First-Year Camper) staff assists in the Ignite area of camp which teaches the first year camper program, focusing on the basic Scout skills listed in the Tenderfoot, Second Class, and First Class requirements of the Boy Scout Handbook.

Requirements

- Must be at least 15 years of age or older
- Must be a registered member of the Boy Scouts of America.

Key Responsibilities

- Reports directly to the Ignite Director.
- Must have a working knowledge of the above mentioned requirements and proficiency in all the related skills.
- Assists Ignite Director in developing lesson plans for teaching the above requirements.
- Is able to instruct scouts in the correct and safe use of all tools and equipment used in the Ignite area.
- Is able to follow a lesson plan and present a class in an engaging manner.
- Is able to positively manage minor disruptive behavior, and to recognize when a question of policy, safety, or discipline needs to be taken to the Ignite Director.
- Plans and facilitates projects which use skills learned in the Ignite area.
- Under the supervision of the Ignite Director, is responsible for the safety of participants in the Ignite area and keeps the area clean and organized.
- Is fiscally responsible with program supplies.
- Keeps accurate records of scout attendance at all classes taught.
- Accompanies scouts on hikes and outposts.
- Assists in other areas of camp whenever needed.
- Each week, acts as a troop guide to one of the Troops as they arrive in camp and during their stay.
- Serves as a model of the Scout Oath and Scout Law.
- Maintains positive morale at all times
- Promotes healthy living by example, especially the importance of hydration while at camp.

- Carries out any other duties as may be assigned by the Camp Director or Program Director.