BERT ADAMS SCOUT CAMP

Dining Hall Steward

Reports to:	Dining Hall Director and Lead Dining Hall Steward
Supervises:	N/A
Area:	Dining Hall

Position Summary

The Dining Hall Steward is responsible for assisting in meal preparation and service, and kitchen and dining hall organization and cleaning.

Requirements

- Must be at least 15 years of age.
- Must be a registered member of the Boy Scouts of America.

Key Responsibilities

- Ensure that items necessary for food service are ready before each meal.
- Orient campers to dining facility procedures.
- Help provide an entertaining, positive environment at meals.
- Provide timely and orderly guidance for meal courses and dismissal.
- Serve as a model of the Scout Oath and Scout Law.
- Maintain positive morale at all times.
- Carry out other duties assigned by the Head Steward, Dining Hall Director, or Camp Director.

Common Expectations for All Camp Staff

- Promote Scout spirit and enthusiasm.
- Assist and participate in camp-wide activities and events.
- Be present and on time for all meals.
- Be able to work outdoors all day in typical Georgia summer weather.
- Maintain a positive attitude in front of campers and set an example in appearance, spirit, attitude, uniform, and observance of camp rules and the Scout Oath and Law.
- Follow the staff guidebook and employment agreement.

- Keep work areas, camp, and personal appearance clean and neat.
- Be prepared to lead songs and participate in campfire songs and skits.
- Be available to assist units and other areas of camp as needed.
- Promote hydration and healthy living by example.
- Help with camp setup and takedown as needed.
- Know and be prepared to carry out emergency procedures.
- As assigned, serve as a guide to arriving troops during their stay.